Professional Experience

Attorney Shuo Jiang holds an LL.B. from Peking University and an LL.M. in Civil and Commercial Law from Renmin University of China. She is currently a Senior Partner at Jincheng Tongda & Neal.

Before joining Jincheng Tongda & Neal, Ms. Jiang practiced at several leading law firms and has cultivated 18 years of deep industry experience.

Ms. Jiang focuses on complex cross border dispute resolution, commercial arbitration, and the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments and awards. Several of her cases have been published in the Gazette of The Supreme People's Court Of The People's Republic Of China and now serve as guiding precedents. She delivers optimal solutions on issues such as control disputes and the powers and duties of directors, supervisors, and senior executives. Long-term clients include financial institutions, listed companies, and state-owned enterprises seeking compliance and governance advice.

In the administrative sphere, Ms. Jiang represents clients in bid-tendering, government procurement, and China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC) proceedings, handling administrative complaints, reconsiderations, and litigation to deliver both commercial and legal victories.

A specialist in charity and public-interest regulations, Ms. Jiang advises numerous non-profits on compliant operations and assists corporations in fulfilling social-responsibility commitments. She is also personally active in the public-welfare sector, having led multiple philanthropic projects.

Representative Performance

• CROSS BORDER DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- Beida Jade Bird Group v. Henderson China Holdings – Final judgment by the Supreme People's Court in 2007, published in the SPC Gazette; now a guiding case on applicable law for foreign-related contracts and arbitration-clause validity.
- Represented Northern Light Venture Capital in PRC-court litigation against a private-equity counterpart in a highly contested foreign-related contract dispute. Key issues included (i) jurisdiction after assignment of claims, (ii) validity of the arbitration clause, and (iii) piercing the corporate veil for corporate-personality mingling. The matter featured complex facts and intense adversarial proceedings.
- Represented a large state-owned enterprise in a dispute over the procurement, supply and installation contract involved in an international project participated in by a consortium.
- Advised three Hong Kong holding companies in a share-sale dispute with Inner Mongolia Shuangxin Mining Co.; the matter escalated to the Supreme People's Court.

• CIVIL AND COMMERCIAL LITIGATION

- Counsel to the China Red Cross Foundation on risk control and value preservation for its equity portfolio; drafted the Blue Book on Equity Investment by Charitable Foundations (1st Edition).
- Melanjade Co. v. Ministry of Finance of the PRC – Acted in the second-instance proceedings before the Beijing High People's Court; the court partially overturned the lower-court ruling, granting key relief to the client.
- Served as the defense attorney for the defendant Beijing Huichuang Jingya Catering Co., Ltd. in the first instance contract dispute between the plaintiff from a certain department of a certain bureau and the defendant Jingya Food Group Co., Ltd. and the defendant Beijing Huichuang Jingya Catering Co., Ltd. Eventually, the first instance court ruled to dismiss all the litigation requests of the plaintiff.

- Representing a certain fund company in an investment dispute arising from a gambling agreement, involving a total amount of up to 1.8 billion yuan
- Huzhou Zhongzetaifu Medical Investment LP v. Jiangsu Guozhong Pharmaceutical, Li Wei et al. – Counsel in a multi-party dispute arising from a failed equity infusion.
- Beijing Zhongtai Chuangying Enterprise Management Co. v. ADBC Bayannur Branch & Han Linchong – Represented the plaintiff in complex damages proceedings.
- Represented an investment company in a RMB 430 million contract dispute against the controlling shareholder of a listed company, heard by the Beijing Arbitration Commission.
- Acting for a top-tier domestic investment firm in parallel actions exceeding RMB 1 billion before the Beijing Financial Court and Beijing No. 3 Intermediate People's Court.
- Advised three Hong Kong holding companies in a share-sale dispute with Inner Mongolia Shuangxin Mining Co.; the matter escalated to the Supreme People's Court.
- Represented a central SOE petrochemical leader in an arbitration against a major Beijing state-owned conglomerate over an investment agreement worth RMB 200 million-plus.
- Represented the company's shareholder-creditor in launching bankruptcy-liquidation proceedings, securing recovery of both equity and creditor claims.
- Acted for a shareholder-creditor in obtaining a retrial of the bankruptcy ruling and initiating the company's judicial reorganization.
- Filed for bankruptcy liquidation on behalf of the shareholder-creditor; successfully stayed competing enforcement actions and preserved the client's dual equity and debt interests.
